Miscellaneous goods included ammonium ~~sulfate~~, gypsum, magnesium chloride, tank truck superstructures, ~~fluor spar~~ crane parts, Glauber's salt, boiler parts, generators, rayon (Swilwelle), quartz sand, concrete tubes, piece goods, brown coal tar oil, steel plates, iron containers, roofing paper, bicycles, rubber plates, crepe rubber plates, and potassium chloride.

Comment. Compared to the last reported period, hard coal imports via Horka increased from a low of 259 carloads per day to the normal level of 408 carloads. Increased shipments reflected on total railroad coal stocks which, for the first time in 1955, amounted to more than 6 days' requirements.
